

Dalma Kovacs

Associate

711 Third

212-907-7300 Ext. 7324 |

Direct

212-754-0330 | Fax

dkovacs@golenbock.com

Practice Areas

Complex Business Fraud Litigation | Litigation/Alternative
Dispute Resolution

Dalma Kovacs is a litigation associate in the New York office of Golenbock Eiseman Assor Bell & Peskoe. Before joining Golenbock, Dalma worked as an associate at the office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP. Additionally, she previously worked at two major global law firms in Budapest, Hungary where she was involved in several complex commercial lawsuits, cross-border litigations, and international arbitration proceedings.

Awards

- Michael M. Martin Scholar
- John D. Feerick Award in International Dispute Resolution

Publications

"Enforcing Foreign Arbitral Awards in Hungary," Dispute Resolution Journal, Volume 76, Issue 1, 2022.

Education & Honors

- Fordham University School of Law (LLM in International Dispute Resolution), Magna Cum Laude, Research Assistant to Professor Daniel J. Capra;
- Eotvos Lorand University School of Law, Budapest, Hungary (J.D.), Cum Laude, Faculty Prize for Excellence
- Pantheon-Assas (Paris II) (Master 1 in Comparative Law)

Prior Work Experience

- Kirkland & Ellis, LLP
- Bird & Bird International LLP (Budapest)

- Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP (Budapest)

Bar Admissions

- State of New York
- Budapest Bar Association, Hungary