Practice Areas

Corporate, M&A and Venture Capital | Debt Finance

Robert Matz has been a corporate attorney for over 20 years, concentrating his practice on loan facilities, private placements of securities, including PIPEs, and other debt financings. He advises on transactions ranging from acquisition financing and refinancings to recapitalizations, high yield bonds and convertible debt financing, as well as Term B loans, leveraged loans, asset-based loans, mezzanine financings, and venture capital financings. Rob also counsels clients on debt restructurings, corporate finance and public and private equity offerings. Whether representing a private equity firm, a borrower, a lender/investor or a financial advisor, Rob's clients appreciate his ability to structure and drive complex transactions from term sheet to closing. Rob has extensive experience representing banks, investors, funds, sponsors, borrowers, issuers, underwriters, and placement agents in a variety of debt finance transactions. He has also represented public and private companies and private equity firms in connection with mergers and acquisitions and general corporate and securities law matters, a leading real estate investment sponsor in connection with the formation and capitalization of investment vehicles and the financing of acquisitions by such vehicles, and a major pharmaceutical company in connection with joint venture transactions.
